

APPROVED
By order of the Rector of EHU
No. 1-19 from 2025-03-06

ADMISSION RULES FOR SECOND-CYCLE PROGRAMS (MASTER'S) OF THE EUROPEAN HUMANITIES UNIVERSITY
FOR THE 2025-2026 ACADEMIC YEAR

1. BASIC CONCEPTS AND THEIR DEFINITIONS

The following basic concepts and definitions are used in these Rules:

Applicant – a person who has completed the first cycle of higher University education and has the right to study in a master's program in accordance with the Law on Science and Education of the Republic of Lithuania.

Competitive selection is the selection of applicants for the University's programs in the manner and on the basis of the criteria determined by these Admission Rules.

Master's program - an accredited second-cycle study program equivalent to 60, 90 or 120 ECTS credits. A master's program of 60 ECTS credits lasts 2 semesters, a 90 ECTS program - 3 semesters, and a 120 ECTS program - 4 semesters. Graduates of the master's program are awarded a master's degree.

The Common European Framework of Reference for Languages is a system of language proficiency levels (from A1 to C2) used in the European Union.

Full-time study is a form of study with an intensity of 30 ECTS credits per semester. Full-time study in Master's programs is carried out in the blended learning format.

Subject Committee – a committee that is formed to conduct interviews with applicants applying to a study program.

Admission campaign is a system of advertising, information, organizational and other activities to recruit applicants for the University's study programs.

Admission Committee – a committee created at the University to organize the admission of applicants and make decisions on the competitive selection of applicants.

The procedure for recognizing academic qualifications (education obtained outside Lithuania) – assessment of higher education obtained outside Lithuania, the assessment is carried out by specialists of the EHU Academic Support Centre (according to Lithuanian legislation, without assessment of education obtained outside Lithuania and without making a positive decision on recognition of academic qualification or its recognition with additional conditions, further participation in the University admission competition is impossible).

Interview – an interview on the topic of the selected program, which is conducted by the Subject Committee.

Blended learning is a format of teaching within the framework of a full-time form of study, in which face-to-face classroom classes are combined with online classes organized on the basis of the Moodle distance learning system and through video conferencing.

English language testing is a test to determine the applicant's proficiency in English at level B2, according to the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages.

Curriculum – a study program in one of the areas of study, accredited in accordance with the established procedure by the Centre for Quality Assessment in Education of the Republic of Lithuania, according to which students are recruited.

University – European Humanities University.

ECTS (European Credit Transfer and Accumulation System) is a European student-oriented system for the transfer and accumulation of credits.

2. GENERAL PROVISIONS

- 2.1. These Rules regulate the process of admission to full-time Master's degree programs.
- 2.2. The list of programs to which students are admitted in the 2025-2026 academic year is approved by the Rector and is presented in paragraph 5.1 of these Rules.
- 2.3. The recommendation for admission to Master's programs is made by the University Admission Committee.
- 2.4. Applicants who successfully pass the competitive selection are invited to sign an agreement with the University.
- 2.5. Persons who have completed the first cycle of higher University education outside the Republic of Lithuania are required to undergo the procedure for recognition of education acquired outside the Republic of Lithuania in accordance with the procedure established by law.

3. ADMISSION PROCESS

- 3.1. Applicants with a higher education (bachelor's / specialist's degree or equivalent) and English language proficiency at a level not lower than B2, according to the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages, are eligible to apply for Master's programs.
- 3.2. Submission of documents:
  - 3.2.1. To enroll in the University, an applicant must complete an electronic (online) application form within the timeframes specified in the Admission campaign Calendar.
  - 3.2.2. Provide electronic copies of the following documents:
    - 3.2.2.1. Spreads of the passport and internal identification card (if available) or identification card (for citizens of member states of the European Union or the European Economic Area) with a photograph and personal information in the state language and/or in Latin transliteration;
    - 3.2.2.2. Document(s) confirming the applicant's higher University education:
      - bachelor diploma and diploma supplement (required);
      - specialist diploma and diploma supplement (5 years of study, required);
      - master's diploma and diploma supplement (only in addition to a bachelor's or specialist's degree);
      - an official document from a University or other type of higher education institution confirming the person's studies at a higher education institution (not required for EHU graduates);
    - 3.2.2.3. If available, documents confirming knowledge of English at a level not lower than B2, in accordance with the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages:
      - certificates confirming passing a language exam that confirms proficiency in English at level not lower than B2 (TOEFL, IELTS, Cambridge English, etc.);
      - The Admission Committee may also accept other documents as documents confirming proficiency in English at a level not lower than B2 (for example, a diploma of higher education issued by a linguistic University or a translation faculty; an academic transcript issued by a linguistic University or a translation faculty; a diploma issued by a linguistic college; an academic transcript issued by a linguistic college, etc.);

- 3.2.2.4. Other documents (e.g. document on change of name/surname, documents on secondary education, portfolio with evidence of practical experience, etc.).
- 3.3. The Admission Committee reserves the right to verify the information contained in the application form. If the applicant provides false information, the application will be removed from the competitive selection at any stage.
- 3.4. Admission to participate in the competition:
- 3.4.1. The main condition for admission to the competition is the passing competition score, which is made up of the grade of the final (diploma) work and the average grade (GPA or CGPA) of the grades of the diploma supplement/academic transcript or other relevant document.
- 3.4.1.1. The competition score is calculated using the formula:
- $$(IR \times 0.6) + (CB \times 0.4) = KB$$
- (where IR is the grade of the final (diploma) work, CB is the average arithmetic score of the grades from the diploma supplement, KB is the competition score).*
- 3.4.1.2. The competition score must be at least 8 (eight) on a 10-point scale or at least 80% of the maximum possible, depending on the educational institution or country in which the education was received.
- 3.4.2. Applicants who have not provided documents confirming knowledge of English at a level not lower than B2, but whose applications have passed the preliminary review of documents with positive results, are invited to take the English test.
- 3.4.3. University graduates are exempt from English language testing.
- 3.5. Interview:
- 3.5.1. The interview is conducted by the Subject Committee in order to assess the applicant's general humanitarian culture and readiness to study at the University.
- 3.5.2. The decision of the subject committee to refuse admission to an applicant after the interview must be reasoned and in writing. In this case, it is transmitted or sent to the applicant electronically within three days after the interview.
- 3.5.3. After announcement of the interview results, the applicant has the right to appeal the decision. In this case, the applicant submits a written appeal to the Chairman of the Admission Committee. The procedure for considering appeals is regulated by the relevant regulatory document.
- 3.5.4. The University records the interview, using it exclusively to resolve disputes in the event of an applicant filing an appeal. Interview recordings are stored until October 1 of the current year.
- 3.6. Making a decision to accept a student and inviting him to sign an agreement:
- 3.6.1. to recommend the admission of an applicant to the student body is made by the Admission Committee based on compliance with one of the requirements specified in paragraph 3.4.1 and based on the results of the interview.
- 3.6.2. applicants with the highest overall competition score have priority in admission.
- 3.6.3. If the Subject and Admission Committees make a positive decision, applicants who have successfully passed the selection competition are invited to sign a contract for study at the University.
